EDGECOMBE COUNTY, N. C.—Out of Craven county Edgecombe was formed. Its name signifies "a valley environed with hills," according to our authority. It derives its name from the Earl of Mount Edgecombe, who was a captain in the British Navy, and served under the celebrated Admiral Byng, in Minorca, whose cruel river, just south of a considerable bend to the eastward and Northward. It is proposed to connect Tarboro' with Wilmington the cotton was saved. on the Roanoke, by rail, which will bring the former place in more direct communication with this city by way of Albemarle the estimation of the celebrated Bishop and the guilty party punished. Wednesday.. 17 Rosin.-We have no change of importance to note in the market for this article since our last report. There has been a steady demand from uyers, and a fair amount changed hands in the early part of the week, but for the past two or three days the transactions have been limited in conequence of the high prices, sellers generally holding at figures above the views of buyers. The quantity coming to market both by river and railroad is smaller than auticipated, and the stock now held here is very light. We quote sales for the week as follows: Friday, 40 bbls. black at $2 50, $7; Saturday, 51 do. Common at $3, 522 do.
